AGENT CONTACT

Driven and focused describe Whitney Geyer. This extrovert makes it her mission to give her clients the attention they deserve and the marketing they need. Born and raised in Bristow, Whitney has always loved the outdoors, in particular, hunting deer, turkey and hogs; and bowfishing, catfishing and spoonbill fishing.

After graduating high school, Whitney took a job with a surgical center where she worked as Assistant to the Director of Human Resources prior to joining Midwest Land Group as an Administrative Assistant for another agent. It was then she knew she had found her calling. Whitney worked hard to become a Land Agent – a transition that was all too seamless based on her background and experience.

She is a member of Olive First Baptist Church, where she volunteers her time helping run events and assisting anywhere there's a need. She enjoys spending time with her husband Dillon and son Bowman, being outdoors, riding her Polaris around the countryside, deer hunting, and bowfishing.

Having bought and sold her own property with her family, Whitney eagerly helps buyers and sellers with their own property needs, and offers open and honest communication to ensure goals are met and desired results are achieved. She makes it her mission to make the buying and selling process a relaxed one. If you're in the market to buy or sell land, be sure to give Whitney a call.
