This 80 +/- acre property is an absolute gem! It is conveniently located super close to the Lake of the Ozarks and just 20 minutes from Sunrise Beach, Climax Springs, and Camdenton. Talk about a stellar location! If you already have a lake house and want a place to roam and hunt close by, this is it! Navigate the woods on the established trail system that provides great access throughout the land. The rolling ridges are awesome and feature a variety of mature oak timber. The property sets up great for hunting with several stands and blinds already in place. There is plenty of room to spread out family and friends during deer and turkey hunt camp. Speaking of camp, you can access the property from an additional access road that enters the northwest corner, which features a lean-to for storage and a cleared area for camp. Sit around the fire pit and reflect on the memories made on this awesome property! This would make for a great secluded spot to park a camper or construct a cabin.
