MIDWEST LAND GROUP IS HONORED TO PRESENT

WYRICK FARMS

Wyrick Farms is the vision of Gregory Wyrick, a man who transformed a lifelong passion into one of Kansas's most unique hunting destinations. Blessed to live in God's Country, Wyrick poured decades of knowledge into designing a place where wildlife thrives and hunters experience the outdoors in its purest form. This land has been carefully shaped to enhance what nature already provided, drawing in every species of wildlife the region has to offer and creating a dream hunting location for pheasant, quail, and whitetail deer.

This property comprises 390 acres of purpose-built habitat. This is not just acreage, it's a master plan refined over a lifetime. The east quarter features two food plots, a water trough, and a strategically placed blind tucked into rolling terrain surrounded by CRP. Across the road, 240 additional acres hold the lodge and home, then continuing the habitat design to the West with another deer blind, water trough, ten more food plots, and CRP, which is home to an impressive number of upland birds and giant Kansas deer.

The original 1902 farmhouse has been restored into a lodge with a bar and gathering room, added in 2010. Like the hunts themselves, time here feels different; conversations replace television, camaraderie replaces distraction. The lodge offers two bedrooms with bunks for eight hunters, two bathrooms, and a dedicated bird cleaning shed. Outbuildings include dog kennels and run, equipment storage, and a large shop outfitted for gutting, cleaning, and even a gym.

Nearby, the 2,300 square-foot main home offers four bedrooms, two bathrooms, and a landscaped private yard that creates seclusion while being in convenient walking proximity to the lodge. Wildlife regularly fills the yard, where hunting is possible right from the porch.

This property has never relied on pen-raised birds; every hunt here has been real and rewarding. With food, water, bedding, cover, and a network of mowed trails, the land is designed to support both game and real sportsmen. Additional CRP enrollment, food plots, and conservation partnerships enhance habitat while adding supplemental income.

Whether you seek a turnkey upland and deer outfitting business, a private hunting club, or your own world-class hunting retreat, Wyrick Farms is ready. Every acre has been walked, worked, and cared for. This is more than land; it's a once-in-a-lifetime opportunity to own a piece of Kansas hunting heritage where the work has already been done and hunting is in the palm of your hand.
