SECLUDED GRAND RIVER BOTTOM FARM WITH INCOME AND HUNTING OPPORTUNITIES

Tucked away at the end of a quiet dead-end road, this property offers privacy, seclusion, and direct frontage on the Grand River. The setting combines highly productive cropland with pockets of timber and outstanding recreational and hunting opportunities. Beyond its seclusion, the open fields and timbered edges create excellent habitat for deer and turkey, while the Grand River adds a recreational bonus with fishing and water access. Whether it's hunting, fishing, or simply enjoying the outdoors, this farm delivers.

The property also includes 42 +/- acres of tillable ground, currently cash-rented to a local farmer at $8,000 annually, with rent paid on March 1st. Highly productive soils, primarily Nodaway silt loam with areas of Lagonda silty clay loam, give this farm an excellent 78.5 NCCPI rating, making it a top-tier row crop producer. According to tax records, the farm totals 78.89 assessed acres, with online mapping indicating approximately 52 acres of usable land.
