MIDWEST LAND GROUP IS HONORED TO PRESENT

HUNT, FISH, & EXPLORE - A 40 +/- ACRE OUTDOOR RETREAT

Tucked along a quiet county road in rural Fulton County, Arkansas, lies a property built for escape. Forty acres, comprised of mixed hardwood timber across rolling ridges and hollows, broken by scattered cedar glades, and punctuated with rugged rock outcroppings, is awaiting its next steward. It's a landscape with both beauty and character, a place that calls to hunters, adventurers, and anyone who craves the peaceful embrace of the outdoors.

Wildlife thrives here. Deer trails crisscross the timber, turkeys scratch through the fallen leaves in search of their next meal, and small game slips quietly through thick cover. Cedar glades provide a natural diversity to the landscape along with the option to restore native grassland barrens, while hardwood ridges create perfect stand sites. For the sportsman, this isn't just land — it's opportunity on every acre.

The adventure doesn't end at the property line. Conveniently perched just above the Spring River valley, this tract enables the freedom of seeking some of the region's finest trout, smallmouth bass, and walleye fishing only minutes away. And with its location halfway between historic downtown Hardy, Arkansas, and Mammoth Spring, Arkansas, home to the 7th largest freshwater spring in the United States, you're surrounded by rich history, natural wonders, and endless opportunities to explore. Hunt the ridges at dawn, fish the river by afternoon, and end the day around a fire beneath a star-filled sky, the perfect recipe for a true outdoor lifestyle.

With electricity and high-speed internet available at the county road frontage, the property is ready for more than recreation. Imagine a rustic cabin tucked at the edge of a glade, a hunting camp for friends, or a weekend retreat for the whole family. This is land with endless potential — to build, to explore, to enjoy.

And there's a timeless quality here. The kind of ground that begs to be passed down, carrying stories of early mornings, long days, and quiet nights. A property where adventure begins now, and a legacy takes root for tomorrow.

OVERVIEW MAP

AGENT CONTACT

Cameron Boyd was born in Jonesboro and raised on the values of hard work, integrity, and reverence for wild places. With deep family roots in agriculture and a lifetime spent outdoors, he understands the land not just as real estate, but as a way of life. Today, he owns a cattle and hay farm in North Central Arkansas — land that doubles as his personal hunting ground and a living canvas for habitat improvement projects in partnership with the Arkansas Game & Fish Commission.

Before entering land sales, Cameron managed large-scale row crop operations, ran heavy equipment for precision land leveling, and even owned a custom cotton harvesting business. If it involved soil, water, or steel, he embraced it and used it to learn every inch of what makes rural ground work.

Cameron serves Northern Arkansas with the eye of a hunter and conservationist, the hands of a builder, and the heart of someone who genuinely wants to help people find their place. He's driven, dependable, and not afraid to take on big challenges — especially when it comes to helping fulfill the lifelong dreams of his clients.
