MIDWEST LAND GROUP IS HONORED TO PRESENT

DEVIL'S TOWER OVERLOOK ON PINE PLATEAU

Set high upon a wide-open grassy plateau at roughly 5,200 feet in elevation, this remarkable 80 +/- acre holding commands unobstructed views of Devils Tower and the rugged silhouettes of the Missouri Buttes. From this vantage, the land rolls outward in every direction — big sky overhead, pine-dark ridges beyond, and the kind of silence that settles deep in your chest. Tucked up Lytle Creek along Bear Lodge Road, just 11 miles south of Hulett as the crow flies, the setting feels both secluded and sovereign — an elevated sanctuary in the shadow of Wyoming's most storied monolith.

With over 68,000 acres of national forest a stone's throw away, less than .7 miles, the area benefits from extensive, uninterrupted habitat that supports strong wildlife numbers. The mix of green grass, timber, and endless country provides reliable forage, bedding cover, and travel corridors for both deer and turkey. Limited hunting pressure and low overall disturbance allow populations to remain stable and mature. The result is a healthy, sustainable concentration of wildlife that reflects the quality of the habitat and the scale of the surrounding landscape. Wyoming residents, this property is located in Hunt Area 116 for elk, and Hunt Area 2 for deer - both are a general tag, Wyoming nonresidents, Region E for elk and Region A for deer - a once every third year elk tag and every other year deer tag.

Practicality meets rarity here. Overhead electric service runs along nearly the entirety of the property, west to east, for approximately 550 yards, then north to south another 420 yards —offering accessible infrastructure without sacrificing the land's untamed character. With no covenants and no HOA, this ground is unbound and ready for a legacy homestead, a private retreat, or how you see fit. Properties of this stature, with views of Devils Tower and the Missouri Buttes from such commanding ground, seldom come to market. This is Western land in its truest form, an honest needle-in-a-haystack.

Born and raised in the heart of Wyoming, Ridge Briggs embodies the spirit of the West. From his roots in Riverton to his time as a student-athlete at the University of Wyoming, Ridge has lived by the principles that define cowboy culture—honesty, grit, and a deep respect for the land. These values, often summed up by “The Code of the West,” are the foundation of how Ridge does business: always ride for the brand, always finish what you start, and know that some things aren’t for sale.

As an avid backcountry bowhunter, fishing enthusiast, and knowledgeable elk hunting guide, Ridge doesn’t just understand land—he’s lived it. His family’s cabin in the Bighorn Mountains and lifelong connection to Wyoming’s outdoors have shaped a perspective that goes far beyond property lines.

Armed with a degree in Business Entrepreneurship and Professional Sales, Ridge brings a “no quit” attitude, strong communication, and a tireless work ethic to every client interaction. Whether you’re buying your first hunting property or selling a generational ranch, Ridge is committed to honoring your goals and representing your land with the same pride and care he would his own.

In Wyoming, business begins with a handshake. With Ridge Briggs, it ends with trust well-earned.
