KOONCE CREEK FARM

Koonce Creek Farm, a 47-acre rare opportunity in the heart of Van Zandt County. This farm blends natural beauty, functionality, and income potential. Conveniently situated within easy reach of the Dallas/Fort Worth area, yet far enough away to enjoy privacy and wide open skies, this property captures the true spirit of Texas country living.

The land itself is a showpiece. Gently rolling pastures provide elevation changes that create spectacular views across the country side. A peaceful creek meanders through the property, adding both character and practical water access for livestock and wildlife. Quality pipe fencing and a well-built pipe entrance create a striking first impression while offering durability and security. Whether your vision includes cattle, horses, hay production, or recreational use, this farm is fully prepared and ready to go.

At the center of the property stands an impressive 5,000 square foot barndominium that seamlessly combines rustic charm with modern comfort. Designed with space and versatility in mind, the home features six generously sized bedrooms and four full bathrooms, making it ideal for large families, multigenerational living, corporate retreats, or guest accommodations. Expansive open-concept living areas provide room to gather and entertain. The scale and layout of the home offer flexibility, whether you envision private residence living, event hosting, or short-term rental income.

This property's potential extends well beyond residential use. With its scenic rolling terrain, and wide open ceremony spaces, this ranch presents an outstanding opportunity for a wedding venue or special events destination. The barndominium's size and bedroom count make it perfectly suited for VRBO or other short-term rental platforms, capitalizing on the growing demand for rural getaways and group retreats. Ample acreage allows for parking, outdoor gathering areas, additional structures, or future expansion.

Properties of this size, versatility, and condition are increasingly rare in East Texas, especially those that offer both lifestyle and income-producing potential. Whether you're seeking a working ranch, a private family compound, an investment property, or an event-ready venue, this 47-acre East Texas gem delivers unmatched opportunity in a beautiful rural setting.
