MIDWEST LAND GROUP IS HONORED TO PRESENT

23 +/- ACRES OF PRIME DEER HABITAT IN FULTON COUNTY

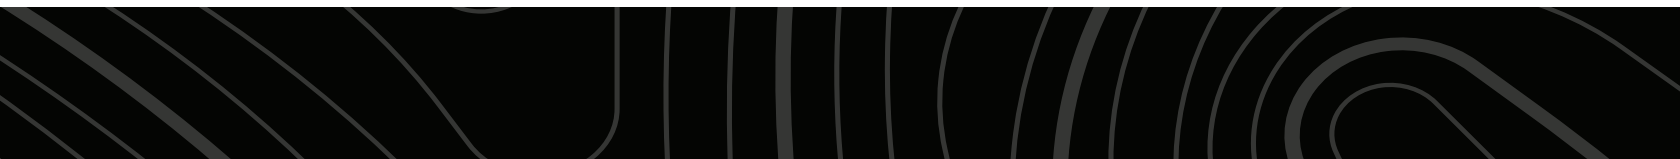

Discover an exceptional opportunity to own 23 acres of prime hunting and recreational land located just outside of Marrieta in Fulton County, Illinois, an area well known for producing quality whitetail deer. This property offers the perfect combination of timber cover, wildlife habitat, and strategic access, making it an ideal setup for serious hunters or anyone looking for a private outdoor getaway.

The farm features strong timber cover throughout the property, creating natural travel corridors for deer and other wildlife. The mix of woods and open areas provides multiple locations suitable for establishing food plots, allowing the next owner to easily enhance the property's already strong wildlife appeal. With a little planning, these areas could be developed into prime feeding locations that help hold and attract deer throughout the season.

The property already shows excellent deer sign, including well-defined trails, rubs, and other indicators that whitetails are regularly using the area. Located in the heart of big deer country in Fulton County, the farm sits in a region known for strong genetics, quality habitat, and consistent hunting success. With the right management, this property has the potential to become a reliable producer of mature bucks year after year.

Whether you're looking for a dedicated hunting property, a recreational escape, or a manageable tract of land with strong wildlife potential, this 23-acre farm checks all the boxes. Its manageable size, strong habitat features, and strategic access make it a rare opportunity in a highly desirable hunting area.

Don't miss your chance to own a piece of prime Illinois deer country in Fulton County. Properties with this kind of habitat, access, and hunting potential are getting harder to find.

AGENT CONTACT

Michael Hammer's connection to land began early and has only grown stronger with time. Born in Winfield, Illinois, and now living in Sugar Grove with his better half, Rose Marie, who shares 6 children and 5 grandchildren. Michael has spent a lifetime immersed in the outdoors, from hunting deer and pheasants with his father to summers fishing at a Wisconsin lake house, land has always been more than an investment—it's been a passion and a way of life.

Michael holds both a Bachelor's degree in Economics and an MBA from Northern Illinois University, and he brings more than 30 years of professional sales, management, and negotiation experience to every transaction. For over two decades, he has personally bought, renovated, and invested in real estate, developing a sharp understanding of value, market dynamics, and the importance of getting the details right. That foundation, paired with a blue-collar work ethic and a commitment to win-win outcomes, allows him to serve clients with confidence and clarity.

An avid deer and turkey hunter, fisherman, golfer, and dedicated wildlife land manager, Michael has scouted tens of thousands of acres and continually studies how to develop properties that grow and hold mature wildlife. He is known for listening closely, communicating clearly, and never quitting on his clients. When you're ready to buy or sell land in Illinois or Wisconsin, Michael Hammer is the kind of trusted partner who will work tirelessly to help you achieve the outcome you want.
