MIDWEST LAND GROUP IS HONORED TO PRESENT

OUTDOORSMAN'S PARADISE WITH NEARLY NEW CUSTOM HOME

This beautiful country home was custom-built in 2023 and features 5 bedrooms and 4 baths. On the main level, you'll find an open-concept kitchen/dining/living room. The living room welcomes you into the home with oak flooring and a handsome woodstove with a ledger stone hearth. Hickory cabinets topped with granite counters adorn the kitchen, which includes a center island with bar seating perfect for food prep and conversations. Home chefs will surely love the roomy pantry, 6-burner gas range, and the farmhouse sink as well. Elsewhere on the main level are a spacious laundry room, master bedroom, master bath with walk-in shower, and Jack-and-Jill vanity. The covered deck off the back of the home is the perfect spot to sip coffee or an evening cocktail and enjoy watching wildlife, as is the covered front porch. Two additional bedrooms share a bathroom to round out the main level.

Moving down to the walkout basement, you will find a well-designed, functional space with plenty of storage. A huge open room functions as a game space or family room, complete with a kitchenette/home bar. Two more bedrooms are found on this level, and either would make a great home office space. The basement also features two bathrooms, a mechanical room, and a secondary laundry closet. And don't overlook the nearly 160 square foot concrete storm room offering secure storage and reinforced shelter when the weather threatens to turn ugly.

Standing north of the home is a large shop perfect for storing all your equipment and tools. The 40'x 60' main space features a 14' ceiling, full concrete floor throughout, full RV hookups including septic, and four overhead doors. A guest room/apartment is attached to the larger shop space, extending your capacity for visitors, and the covered porch is an inviting space for an outdoor kitchen and enjoying nature. And for even more protected storage, a roomy 3-car garage provides additional space. Dog lovers will appreciate the heavy-duty dog kennel behind the garage, with welded steel modular runs and weather-tight boxes.

The quality of the homestead is well matched by the great wildlife habitat found in the woods and fields behind the home. Several trails meander through the mature hardwood timber, full of oaks, hickories, sycamores, walnuts, and cedars. Acres of native prairie provide plenty of forage and enough brushy cover to provide plenty of secure cover for the numerous whitetails and wild turkeys found on the farm. As you move south through the cover, you'll quickly recognize that this land holds tremendous potential for growing and hunting mature bucks. A Muddy box blind on a 10' tower is sure to be a great place to wait in comfort for a bruiser buck to sneak through, and with several pinch points and habitat funnels, there are many options for hunting various winds and conditions.

With all of these features, this is a spectacular western Missouri farm in a class that rarely comes to market. Whether you're looking for the perfect rural property to enhance your outdoor lifestyle or you and some friends want an upscale lodge and recreational property to share experiences and memories, this Vernon County property checks all the right boxes.
